

Sports complex

Reignier Esery, France

|         |                                                                               |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Client  | Ville de Reignier Esery                                                       |
| Team    | VINCENT ROCQUES : Representative architectBARTHELEMY GRINO : Co-Architect |
| Nature  | New construction                                                              |
| Program | Gymnasium, cultural space and tennis club                                     |
| Status  | Unrealized                                                                    |
| Cost    | 9,5 M€ HT                                                                     |
| Area    | 17 700 m <sup>2</sup>                                                         |

